Gemini Partners with Collins Safety to Distribute Occupational Health and Safety Online Training in British Columbia

Over 50 courses tailored to meet B.C. legislation

Calgary, Alberta – August 3, 2011 - Gemini Performance Solutions Inc. (Gemini) and Collins Safety Services Ltd. (Collins Safety) announced today that they have entered into an agreement to develop and deliver a B.C. version of Gemini's occupational health and safety training, The Health, Safety, and Environment Resource iLibrary (THRIL).

THRIL is widely utilized by corporations across Canada with over 50 courses tailored to address unique needs for different vertical markets. As part of the agreement Collins is working with Gemini to convert THRIL courses to meet B.C. legislation that will address the growing demand for a more skilled and competent workforce in British Columbia.

Joe Collins, President of Collins Safety stated that, "We were looking for an eLearning partner that had a strong track record in occupational health and safety training and could work with us to fill the growing demand for online training in B.C. This exciting new partnership will allow us to deliver a custom, cost-effective training solution to our extensive client base."

"Gemini is always interested in partner relationships that assist us in the expansion of THRIL and our other libraries as well as to access to new markets. Collins Safety is an ideal partner for us and we are most grateful and looking forward to working with them to further develop and deliver our training solutions in B.C.," commented Kim Adolphe, Gemini President and CEO.
